J. F. BARCLAY

M. W. Mason and O. H. Olson, Auctioneers. J. W. NICHOLSON, Clerk

There will be English services at the Lutheran church Sunday evening, August 4th at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Frank Braun received a phone message Wednesday afternoon that her husband, who was working on the new elevator building at Ellis, was hurt. A scaffold broke and he fell 40 feet, in the fall he caught the wire and broke the fall; he was slightly stunned, but otherwise he seems to be alright. A fellow workman was injured quite badly as he was unconscious for hours and no doubt was hurt internally.

SOUTH TREGO

Rains are getting quite numerous here of late.

Mrs. Grant Ropp visited with Lydia Dienes Monday.

Messrs. Harry and Earnest Smith were Wa-Keeney shoppers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rice and family spent Sunday in Bazine visiting relatives.

Mrs. Jess Edwards left for Camp Funston last Friday to visit her husband.

22nd ANNUAL CAMP MEETING

The Central Kansas Holiness Association will hold its 22nd Annual Camp Meeting at

Wa-Keeney, Kan.,

In the Trego County Fair Association Building

Beginning Thursday Evening, August 1, and Closing Sunday, August 11

WORKERS

REV. S. A. DANFORTH, D. D.—A leader in the Holiness Work and member of the M. E. Church and formerly District Superintendent for a number of years in the Dakota Conference. He will be one of the workers.

MILLIE LAWHEAD—One of our National group of lady evangelists, and widely known as a successful soul winner. She will be the other message bearer.

GOOD SINGING is being provided for so you may hear the Gospel in song as well as in message. You should not miss these messages.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Plenty of good drinking water always on the ground. Electric lights on the buildings. Meals will be served at prices within the reach of all in our dining room on the ground, high cost of living considered. All this by our very competent cook. Cots will be provided as long as they last at a price you can afford to pay. Do not forget to bring your own blankets. We have no covers to supply you with.

TENTS—We have a number of tents for those who want them at $1.50 to $2.00 according to size, for the duration of the Camp Meeting. Camping privileges anywhere on the grounds.

ROOMS may be had in town by those who would rather have them. Word must be sent in advance of your coming, so we can provide for you in this latter case.

Protection for your automobiles will be given under the spare buildings on the grounds.

The Committee desires to announce that arrangements are being made with a view to your accommodation and comfort while on the camp ground. We are here at the invitation of the Trego County Fair Association and we invite you to attend all you possibly can. It may be the last camp.
